Dear Sir :

Referring to the passport application of Josef Rajsik returned, I beg to say, that the year of Mr. Rajsik's arrival in this country was in the application erroneously given as 1884.

Mr. Rajsik arrived here some 18 or 19 years ago, but cannot exactly remember the year. There was a passport made out for him on May 20. 1890 No. 15751 and another one about 4 years later.

I beg to enclose a new application and trust that this will be satisfactory. Kindly excuse trouble given you & oblige

Yours very truly,

Department of State,

Washington, March 11th, 1898.Herman Keyl, Esq.,459 N<sup>o</sup>. 4th St.,Philadelphia, Pa.

Sir:

The law requires five years' continuous residence as a condition of naturalization (Rev. Stat., Sec. 2170). The application of Jos. Keyl dated March 9th, 1898, shows that he emigrated to this country on Sept. 15th, 1884, and that he was naturalized February 9th, 1889. As he was not entitled to a certificate of naturalization, a passport can not be issued to him.

I enclose herewith the application, certificate of naturalization, and the fee of $1.00 (currency) An explanation will be considered.

Respectfully, yours,

Frank A. Branagan
Chief, Bureau of Accounts, and Disbursing Clerk.

I, BETHOVEN ENGLANDER a NATURALIZED AND LOYAL CITIZEN OF THE UNITED STATES, do hereby apply to the Department of State at Washington for a passport for myself and wife, as follows: Myself born at New Sandez, Galizien, Austria, on or about the 18th day of November 1864, and my wife who was born at Jassy, Romania, on or about the 20th day of October 1857.

In support of the above application, I do solemnly swear that I was born at New Sandez, Galizien, Austria, on or about the 18th day of November 1864; that I emigrated to the United States, sailing on board the Westfalia from Hamburg on or about the 2nd day of December 1882; that I resided sixteen years, uninterruptedly, in the United States, from 1882 to 1898 at New York City; that I was naturalized as a citizen of the United States before the Court of Common Pleas for the City and County of New York at the City of New York, on the 18th day of ~~October~~ 1893, as shown by the accompanying certificate of Naturalization; that I am the IDENTICAL PERSON described in said Certificate; that I am a Hebrew, and that my name in the English language is the equivalent for Israel. When I first came to this country I desired to assume an English surname, and being wrongly informed that the English translation of Israel was Isidor, I adopted the name of Isidor Englander and was known by that name for sometime, and was naturalized under said name. That thereafter and on the 12th day of <sup>18</sup>July 1897, I made an application to the City Court of the City of New York, for leave to assume another name, and an order was duly made on the 12th day of <sup>18</sup>July 1897, authorizing me to assume the name of Bethoven Englander, on and after the 13th day of <sup>18</sup>August 1897, as shown by the accompanying certified copy of the order of said Court and the certified copy of the petition for leave to assume another name, setting forth the same facts herein stated; that I am domiciled in the United States, my permanent residence being at New York, in the State of New York, where I follow the occupation of merchant; that I am about to go abroad temporarily and that I intend to return to the United States within four months, with the purpose of residing and performing the duties of citizenship therein.
